September 10, 2008 Members' Demonstrations

It's time for all you artists to put summertime activities behind you and get ready for another exciting year at Reading Art Association! The first meeting will be on Wednesday, September 10th, beginning at 7:30 in Guild Hall, First Congregational Church (Sanborn Street middle entrance), Reading. Come prepared for an interesting demonstration by four of our members:

Mixed Media by LINDA TALANIAN; Botanical Painting by RUTH CAMBER; Acrylic by TRISHA KURDZIONAK; and "How to Fix Watercolor Mistakes and Save a Painting" by ANTHONY ABATE!

It is hoped that these demonstrations will inspire many more of you to attend our regular monthly meetings. THIS IS YOUR ORGANIZATION! Take full advantage of it!

Get ready for our Members' Fall Exhibit and Sale to be held on November 14, 15 and 16. The detail sheet and entry form are attached. GRACE CHERWEK and EVELYN KNOX will need many members to help with the important tasks involved in this annual event. Please give them a call and let them know when you can be available to help.

See you on September 10th. Bring your friends. Refreshments will be served.

WELCOME, NEW OR RETURNING MEMBERS!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to a new year at RAA. This promises to be a great year for our organization. The list of monthly demonstrators is strong and should provide for a lot of inspiration and technical knowledge.

This past summer has been a good one for me, even though the weather has not been great for use of the pool. Just recently I have received the Mary Bryan Memorial Award For Excellence in Watercolor from the North Shore Arts Association and the Winifred Jackman Hibbard Memorial Award For Excellence in Watercolor from the Rockport Art Association. My private watercolor classes are going extremely well with a wonderful group of students. I firmly believe that teaching has definitely made me a better painter.

Enough of what I've been doing. The question is, what have you been doing? As far as I'm concerned, art does not take a vacation. Even if we take time off from painting or drawing or sculpting, we should never stop being artists. Being an artist is a "state of being." I hope you feel the same way, so I am looking forward to the months ahead and the chance to show each other our creative side. See you in September. Create With Passion!

AUTUMN ART EXHIBIT AND SALE
NOVEMBER 14-16, 2008

As quickly as this summer seems to have passed, so did the 40th Anniversary of Reading Art Association ... and here we are in 2008, looking at our 50th year of pursuing art!

At a backward glance we see that the past 10 years have been years of growth, producing artistic talents and creativity at new levels and giving RAA a name for being an organization with beautiful exhibits.

We hope this wonderful accomplishment will excite all our members to participate in our upcoming Autumn Art Exhibit on November 14, 15 and 16. The detail sheet and entry form are attached for your use.

We urge you to start painting or sculpting now so that we may have another outstanding exhibit in November, one that will continue to reflect the excellence and beauty of an association of artists learning and working together to bring to the community and to each other a yearly opportunity to step into the wonderful world of art.

ANNE DEMETER, Our October Demonstrator

Like her mother, Anne loved to draw. She began painting lessons in Danvers at age 11. Around the corner lived Mrs. Matsubara, a gifted artist and patient teacher. Every Saturday morning she took a half dozen children in her station wagon to different sites around the North Shore to paint in oils and pastels. She brought them into the light about color theory, warm vs. cool, limiting their compositions en plein air, and exposed them to her family life and culture.

Anne Demeter received her B.A. in art/education and went on to teach emotionally disturbed children in Brewster, NY. She and her family returned to the North Shore, where she studied with Helen Van Wyk, Betty Lou Schlemm, Charles Movalli, Don Stone, and other accomplished artists. Anne said, "These artists not only imparted their knowledge of painting, Cape Ann's history and place in American art, but more importantly shared their abiding friendship."

Anne is an artist member of North Shore Arts Association and Rockport Art Association, a former president of North Shore Arts Association, and a trustee of Rockport Art Association.

Anne Demeter will demonstrate in gouache. Bring some friends to this demonstration; enjoy inspiring art and the sociability of delicious refreshments.

THANK YOU, Susan Manning O'Briant, belatedly, for your generous donation to our Art Exhibit and Sale last May.

PEOPLE DOINGS ◆ ◆ ◆

Crist Filer, an artist who keeps busy, was recently juried into several shows: Cambridge Art Association Members Prize Show and their "Shape" Show; Caladan Gallery "Nadir-Returning Home" Show; two shows at Concord Art Association; New England Watercolor Society's Winter Members Show and their Regional Juried Show at Cotuit [Honorable Mention in Watercolor]; LynnArts "Works on Paper" Show; and Rhode Island Watercolor Society's "Winter Around the World" [Second Place in Watercolor]. He was also awarded First Prize in Painting and Honorable Mention in Painting at the Saugus Rotary Show and First Prize in Mixed Media and Second Prize in Watercolor at the Greater Lynn Art Society Show. Crist did a watercolor demonstration for the Guild of Beverly Artists and a watercolor collage workshop for the Peabody Art Association.

Phyllis Kaplan won First Place in Minis for her watercolor, Flamenco, at the Danvers Art Association Spring Show.

Leo Lambert and his wife, Hazel, delivered "Hank Heron" to Saranac Lake, New York, on June 19. Hank is a great blue heron measuring 5' from beak to tail and is 5' tall. The heron, carved by Leo in basswood and painted with acrylics, will be one of the rides on a new carousel being built in a downtown park in the Village of Saranac Lake. Completion and the "Grand Opening" of the carousel are scheduled for the summer of 2009. All of the carvers involved in this project are invited back to take the "first ride" on their respective animals at the grand opening. The story of the carousel and photos of Hank and the other rides can be found at www.adirondackcarousel.org.

Lorraine O'Brien was awarded Second Place in Professional Watercolors for The Estuary, ME at the Danvers Art Association Spring Show.

Nancy Roll is helping this year with the preparations for the 2009 Melrose Arts Festival.

Mary Saija received an award at the North Shore Art Association in Gloucester at the Associates' Show in July.
