September 9, 2009 Members' Demonstrations

It's time to put summertime activities behind you and get ready for another exciting year at Reading Art Association! The first meeting will be on Wednesday, September 9th, beginning at 7:30 in Guild Hall, First Congregational Church (Sanborn Street middle entrance), Reading. Come prepared for interesting demonstrations by four of our members:

Watercolor by Jack Jones; Oil by Mary Kelly; Oil by Dennis McQuillen; and Watercolor by Ed Rice!

It is hoped that these demonstrations will inspire many more of you to attend our regular monthly meetings. THIS IS YOUR ORGANIZATION! Take full advantage of it! And please reach out to help the busy members who give their time and talent, year after year, to make this such a wonderful organization.

Get ready for our Members' Fall Art Show to be held on November 13, 14, and 15. The detail sheet and entry form are enclosed. Grace Cherwek [781 334 4292] and Evelyn Knox [781 944 3972] will need many members to help with the important tasks involved in this annual event. Please give them a call and let them know when you can be available to help.

See you on September 9th. Bring your friends. Refreshments will be served upon your arrival.

WELCOME, NEW MEMBER!

MARIS PLATAIS WILL DEMONSTRATE AN ACRYLIC LANDSCAPE

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2009

Guild Hall, Congregational Church (middle side door), Sanborn Street, Reading

We are privileged to have Maris Platais return to RAA to present a demonstration in Acrylic Landscape. Maris is a native of Latvia and has lived in New England since 1949. He is a graduate of Tufts University and the Boston Museum School. After serving for 4 years in the United States Marine Corps, he worked as an advertising artist, both corporate and freelance, while also teaching drawing at the Museum of Fine Arts. Currently he teaches painting and drawing at the Lexington Arts and Crafts Painters Guild and lectures and demonstrates to art associations throughout the northeast. He has served as a juror for many organizations, including the New England and the Rhode Island Watercolor Societies.

Maris works both en plein air and in studio, often combining the two. His subjects are inspired by nature, land and sea. Color as well as good drawing are very important. He says, "I am particularly moved by the calligraphic lines of tree branches that produce an endless variety of abstract shapes through lost-and-found lines as well as changing edges and contrasts."

Maris Platais' work has been exhibited nationally and internationally, and he has won innumerable awards. He is a member of the Guild of Boston Artists, the Academic Artists Association, the American Society of Marine Artists, and the Concord Art Association, where he has served as president.

Invite a friend to this demonstration. Refreshments will be served upon your arrival.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings, RAA Members! I hope everyone had a wonderful summer!

I am excited about the coming year, being part of this unique community of talented artists. We have been an organization for over fifty years, and we hope to continue to grow as an open and welcoming society where we are able to fulfill our artistic dreams.

Our excellent monthly programs are organized by Lou Doto, who applies his time and energy in choosing the top regional artists. We are open to ideas and suggestions for our monthly programs, exhibits, and other events. There will be name tags available at the door so we can greet new members or catch up on summer happenings.

We will have the refreshment table set up before the meeting and will eliminate the mid-demo break that often distracts the guest artist. Refreshments for the September meeting will be provided by Ruth Camber and Jeannette Corbett. There will be a sign-up sheet in September for the other meetings this year. We need and will greatly appreciate volunteers to bring a dessert or drinks, to set up the refreshment table, and to work on the Fall or Spring exhibits.

There is also a wonderful opportunity for several members to participate in the First Annual Reading Street Faire to be held on the Common from 12 noon to 6 p.m. on Sunday, September 13th. We would like to have 3 or 4 volunteer artists every two hours, painting to the music of the Reading Symphony, amid other festivities. This is a marvelous way to support the Arts in Reading and to enhance our visibility throughout the community. Please feel free to call me at 781 944 3181 for more details.

FALL ART SHOW NOVEMBER 13, 14, and 15, 2009

Has your summer been wonderful? Has it been inspiring? Has it been wet? Has it been fun or relaxing? We know it has gone by quickly, for here we are looking at our upcoming Fall Show!

Whatever your summer has been, we hope you have had time to capture some part of it on your camera, canvas, or 140-pound Strathmore paper. We'll be looking forward to seeing you and your artistic expressions on Thursday, November 12th, between 4 and 8 p.m.
