PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

As I am writing this letter, the Annual Spring Exhibit and Sale is in progress. As always, Evelyn Knox and Grace Cherwek have done a superb job of organizing the show and producing the beautiful murals on stage and the bountiful plantings and bouquets that decorate the stage and church hall.

I have noticed only a small group of members who have continually volunteered their services. Leo Lambert is always at the board meetings, guiding us year after year. Always with a smile! Lou Doto, our Program Chairperson, finds the best artists for our monthly demonstrations, year after year. And what would we do without Brian Kimerer, our faithful Webmaster?

Ted and Nancy Smethurst have graciously volunteered their talent and time to film and edit the demos for our local TV channel. This is all new to them, but they have put their hearts and souls into this project, and we are so grateful.

I sincerely hope that more members will volunteer their time and talent to our artist community.

To update everyone on the Chelsea Soldiers Home project, Pat Boyer is closely monitoring the progress of the beautification of the facility. The progress has been slow due to the refurbishing of buildings. The Commandant assures us that all 200 of the paintings donated will be in the rooms and halls in the next few weeks. I will keep you updated on this on our website, hopefully with photographs.

I look forward to seeing all of you at the annual banquet at Hillview Country Club on Tuesday, June 8. (The reservation form is attached.) Our speaker is Robert Pyle, a talented photographer whose black-and-white images are seen in galleries all over New England. What a privilege to have him speak at our final event of the season!

Corbett

SINCERE THANKS FROM OUR SPRING SHOW CHAIRS ◆ ◆ ◆

We thank all the members who helped put the show together and for the great outcome of their joint efforts. We credit the success of the show to our members who unfailingly give of their time to take in paintings, set up easels, greet guests, bake and serve refreshments. It takes many hands to lighten a great load! This includes those who stay after the show to take down everything we used and return it all to our storage closet. We appreciate all your help—a wonderful contribution to “Shades of Spring”!

Grace and Evelyn
